PASTORAL MOMENT: Two thousand years ago the Light of God and Glory came to our world. Through the door of a stable in Bethlehem, this little Baby would be wrapped in swaddling clothes and laid in a manger filled with hay.

The prophet Isaiah spoke of His coming, and Matthew reiterated in his Gospel, “the people who had walked in darkness have seen a great light.” John would also write, “the word became flesh and dwelt among us … and we beheld His glory.” That’s the good news!

And yet, even today, there are still those who walk in darkness. But the best news of the Christmas story is this—He’s still here! He didn’t just come to be a celebration for a day, or even a season. He came to be Emmanuel—God With Us. Forever!

If you don’t know Him as the true joy of Christmas, and if you haven’t allowed Him to be your Redeemer, as you just heard them sing about—I want you to know that the best gift you could give yourself this Christmas, is to invite Him to become the Lord of your life. Whether you do it tonight, in this room, or maybe alone, later, by yourself—just do it. It’ll be the best decision you’ve ever made.

And to those who already know Jesus as your Lord and Savior, He calls you to become a reflection of His light to the world around you. I know we’re busy, especially at this time of the year, and there are so many different things going on in our lives; but don’t forget His instruction to “let your light so shine before men.” To your family, your friends, your community—so many need His light in their lives.

In fact, I'd love for all of you to stand together, all across this room. *Let's lift our hearts and our voices, and in an act of surrender to Him, let's commit ourselves and say, "Yes, Lord, we need Your light. We thank You for Your light. But now, we are saying, "Lord, let me be Your light. Showing the way to those in the night, Lord, let me be Your light."

Come on, let's sing together!

Sing Joyful

(Music begins) The dark night has been ended with a brilliant star. The heavens are filled with His glory!

The long wait has culminated with the cry of a baby King in a barn. The silence is finally broken… with a song! And all creation— fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains—unite to repeat the sounding joy!

Let heav'n and nature sing— joyfully!

Joy to the world, the Lord is come! Let heav'n and nature sing joyfully!

O Come, Emmanuel

(Music begins) Oh, yes! Aren't you glad we have a reason to sing joyfully? Come on, stand together, all across the room, and let's lift our voices, and sing O Come, O Come, Emmanuel!

O Come, Emmanuel (Optional Narration)

(Music begins) Praise the Lord! Heaven and nature sings… and so can we! Let's stand together, and lift our hearts, and voices, to celebrate the coming of Christ, our Emmanuel, who gives us all a reason to rejoice!

All Because He Came

The birth of Jesus turned everything around. There was no country or culture that wasn't impacted. (Music begins) Men, women, boys, girls, the young, and the old, could now celebrate a hope… and a future—all because He came!

We Need Christmas

Christmas is celebrated around the world during the month of December. And usually, a few days after Christmas day, the decorations are taken down, cities take down the lights, the trees are left at the curb or put back into the box. People stop using the warm, holiday greetings, and life just gets back to normal. However, problems don't stop, hurt continues, and sin still wreaks havoc on countless lives. But that's really the reason He came to us.

(Music begins) To be Emmanuel, God with us—in the middle of everything we would face. And not just on a day, a month, or a season. He knew that we would need Christmas every single day of the year—and that's exactly what He came to be.

We Need Christmas (Mary and Joseph's Song) Optional Narration

The world, for Mary and Joseph, had definitely been tough. Secretly talked about by friends, and probably some family, for an unexpected pregnancy—and trying to explain that an angel had told them both that the Baby was from God. In addition to this, taxes were high, and obligations were still expected to be met. Traveling to Bethlehem was certainly less than ideal. Yet they continued on, confident in the fact that God had included them in His divine plan.

(Music begins) They weren't just expecting Jesus… they NEEDED Him. Even more than they even realized. And still today, just like then, we need Him. God with us. We need Christmas.

Glory, Glory (Shepherd's Song)
An angel brought a simple message, to simple shepherds, on a hill outside Bethlehem. Good tidings, great joy, to all men—and an invitation to go and find Him! (Music begins) Then, the angels rejoiced, the shepherds went rejoicing, and for the rest of all time, people would lift grateful hearts to rejoice, and to sing glory! Glory to God in the highest!

Still Any Wise Men (Wise Men's Song)
Wise men, in the East, saw the brilliant new star in the heavens over Bethlehem, and sensed, immediately that it signaled the birth of a new King. This caused them to rejoice, with great joy! And that's the part that we all understand. Seeing a new star, and rejoicing. Celebrating! But then, they decided they would go, and find Him, and take Him their very best gifts. What faith, and what total commitment. *(Music begins) T*oday, the heart of God still seeks for the same kind of hunger. Are there any wise among us, who will abandon everything to find Him? Who'll follow His light, even to unfamiliar places, and do it with joy? Yes, when the wise men saw the star, they rejoiced. But when they saw Him… they bowed down, and they worshipped.

Jesus, the Joy of Christmas
Heavenly angels, brilliant stars, lowly shepherds, and wealthy wise men, with magnificent gifts—all brought together by a newborn Baby, in the little town of Bethlehem. (Music begins) A celebration of great joy, unlike any the world had ever known! Jesus IS the joy of Christmas!

Redeemed
Before the dawn of time, God had a plan. From the very foundation of the world, there was a Lamb, a perfect Lamb, who would be slain. And He would come to us, not as a warrior—but a Baby. Not on a white horse— but in a feeding trough. To the broken, He came to be broken. (Music begins) For the hurting, He came to hurt. Yes, He who knew no sin, took on the sin of all mankind—our sin. And now, because of God's gift, we stand… redeemed.

Your Light (Pastoral Moment)
Two thousand years ago the Light of God and Glory came to our world. Through the door of a stable in Bethlehem, this little Baby would be wrapped in swaddling clothes, and laid in a manger filled with hay.

Example: "… stand together, all across this room, and get your candles ready (or get out your cell phones, and turn on the light). Let's lift our hearts, our voices, and our lights, and, in an act of surrender to Him, let's commit ourselves, and say …"

Tell Everyone (Prayer)

Lord, our hearts are so grateful tonight, for the Light of the World that has come to us. We truly can sing joyfully—all because You came.

And, although we will always need Christmas, we are so thankful that, even in the darkest of days, you are still Emmanuel, God with us.

May You always find, as You move among us, people who will give You glory, and who are wise enough to daily seek to follow Your Light.

And now, as we go from this place, may we take this good news of our Savior, King, and Redeemer, and tell it! On the mountains, over the hills, and everywhere! We will lift our voices, and we will tell EVERYONE!
